CHAPTER FIVE

SPECIOUS ARGUMENTS AND RESPONSES TO THEM 263

The first specious argument	264
The reports from Ibn 'Abbaas that he said concerning the ayaah ﴿A lesser form of kufir ﴾	264
The second specious argument
The claim that the ayaat refer exclusively to the people of the book, and that the Muslims are not included in the rulings of these ayaat	265
The third specious argument	265
That ruling by something other than that which Allah has revealed is kufir of action, and kufir of action does not put one beyond the pale of Islam	265
The fourth specious argument	273
A person does not become a kaafir unless he regards it to be permissible to rule by something other than that which Allah has revealed and rejects that which Allah has revealed	273
The fifth specious argument	302
Comparing ruling by something other than that which Allah has revealed to bid'ah	302
The sixth specious argument	315
The narration of consensus that the one who rules by something other than that which Allah has revealed is not a kaafir , except in the case of one who denies and rejects (that which Allah has revealed)	315
