

CONTENTS

Publisher's Note	07
Preface: Third Edition	09
Preface: First Edition	11
Section One
Institutional Monogamy	13
Early Christians were polygynous	14
Self-denial as a way of life	15
Monogamy protects males	18
Section Two
Marriage in Islam	21
Marriage superior to transient relationships	22
Rights of marriage partners	23
The greater responsibility of males	30
A wife's duties	32
Obedience to husbands	36
Muslim women not like non-believing women	41
Section Three
Ta'ad-dud: Polygyny	43
Legality of polygyny	44
Women outnumber men	48
Male sex-drive and the veil	48

6 Contents

Conditions for plural marriages	55
Section Four
Division in Plural Marriages	59
The principle of equality	62
Beginning division	63
Time division	65
A wife's right to time	67
Time rights of a new wife	70
Conjugal rights	72
Making up time	74
Giving up division rights	78
Residence rights	79
Travel rights	81
Spending and clothing rights	83
Gifts	84
Section Five
Conclusion	87
Bibliography	97
Glossary	99
Directory of Symbols	101
Transliteration Chart	102
Index of Hadiths	104