

CONTENTS

PUBLISHER'S NOTE	15
TRANSLATOR'S FOREWORD	17
INTRODUCTION	21

PART ONE THE MESSENGERS AND PROPHETS

CHAPTER ONE

DEFINITIONS	29
Definition of a Nabi (Prophet)	29
Definition of a Rasool (Messenger)	30
The difference between a Messenger and a Prophet	31
Belief in the Prophets and Messengers is one of the basic principles of faith	34
The connection between belief in Allah and belief in the Messengers and their message	34
The Prophets and Messengers form a large group	36
Among the Prophets and Messengers are those whose stories Allah has not told us	37
The Prophets and Messengers who are mentioned in the Qur'an	38
Four from among the Arabs	40
The sons of Ya'qoob	40
Prophets whom we know of from the Sunnah	41
Sheeth	41

6 Contents

Yoosha' ibn Noon (Joshua the son of Nun)	41
Righteous people who may or may not have been Prophets	42
Dhu'l-Qarnayn	42
Tubba'	42
It is better not to make any definite statement concerning Dhu'l-Qarnayn and Tubba'	43
Al-Khidr	44
Disbelieving in one Messenger is like disbelieving in all the Messengers	47
No-one can be said to be a Prophet without evidence	51

CHAPTER TWO

THE NEED OF MANKIND FOR THE MESSENGERS AND THEIR MESSAGES	53
Introduction	53
A valuable comment from Ibn al-Qayyim	55
Ibn Taymiyah explains the need for the Messengers and the Message	57
Comparison between the need of the body for knowledge of medicine and the need of the body and soul for knowledge of the Messengers	61
Is it possible for reason to do without Revelation?	62
The falseness of the Brahmins' view	65
Limits of reason's role	66
The position of reason in relation to the revelation	66

CHAPTER THREE

THE TASKS AND MISSIONS OF THE MESSENGERS	69
1 - Conveying the Message Clearly	69
2 - Calling People to Allah	71

Examples which make the Messengers' role clear	73
3 - Bringing Glad Tidings and Warnings	73
4 - Reforming and Purifying people's Souls	79
5 - Correcting Deviant ideas and Spurious beliefs	81
6 - Establishing Proof	82
7 - Directing the Affairs of the Ummah	86

CHAPTER FOUR

REVELATION - AL-WAHY	89
Prophethood is a divine gift	89
The way in which Allah communicated with His Prophets and Messengers	91
Different forms of Allah's Revelation to His Messengers	92
There are three such forms:	93
The dreams of the Prophets	93
How the angel came to the Messenger	96
Portents of Revelation	96
The effect of the angel on the Messenger	97

CHAPTER FIVE

THE ATTRIBUTES OF THE MESSENGERS	99
Being human	99
Man is qualified to convey the message	99
Why were the Messengers not angels?	102
Implications of the humanity of the Prophets and Messengers	107
The Prophets were exposed to trials	109
The Prophets engage in human work	112
They do not have any divine or angelic qualities	114
Human perfection	117

Physical perfection	117
Their outward appearances differed	119
Perfect manners and attitude	120
The best of people in lineage	122
The Prophets were free men, far removed from slavery	123
Talents and abilities	123
Achieving true enslavement to Allah	125
Masculinity	127
The reason why the Messengers were men	128
Prophethood of women	129
Their evidence	129
Refutation of their view	131
Matters which are unique to the Prophets and not shared by other humans	135

CHAPTER SIX

THE INFALLIBILITY OF THE PROPHETS	141
Infallibility in bearing and conveying the message	141
Matters which do not contradict infallibility	143
Adam's forgetfulness and denial	145
A Prophet burned the city of the ants	146
Our Prophet prayed zuhr as two rak'ahs out of forgetfulness	146
They may err when trying to judge between people	149
Those who deny these emotions of the Prophets and Messengers go against the texts	150
Infallibility from sin	150
The evil actions which the Jews attributed to the Prophets and Messengers	150
The Christians attribute evil actions to the Prophets	152

The view of the Muslim ummah to the infallibility of the Prophets and their being protected from committing sin	153
Infallibility and being protected against committing minor sins	153
Evidence	154
Those who say that the Prophets are infallible and protected against committing minor sins	158
Two specious arguments	159
Infallibility is a sign of humanity	162
Honouring and respecting the Prophets	163
Infallibility of people other than Prophets	163
The “infallibility” of Al-Mu‘izz al-Faaṭimi	164
The infallibility of the Imams (religious and temporal leaders)	164
The secret of infallibility	166

CHAPTER SEVEN

SIGNS OF PROPHETHOOD	171
Introduction	171
Different Kinds of Signs	172
1 - Signs and Miracles	172
Definition of signs and miracles	172
Kinds of signs	174
Examples of the signs of the Messengers	175
1) The sign of Allah’s Prophet Ṣaaliḥ (ﷺ)	175
2) The miracle of the Prophet Ibraaheem (Abraham) (ﷺ)	177
3) The signs of Allah’s Prophet Moosa (Moses) (ﷺ)	178
Other signs	181
4) The miracles of Allah’s Prophet ‘Eesa (Jesus) (ﷺ)	182
5) Signs of the Seal of the Prophets and Final Messenger (ﷺ)	183

10 Contents

The greatest sign	183
A unique kind of miracle	185
The Night Journey and Ascent into heaven ( Israa' and Mi'raaj )	187
The splitting of the moon	188
He (ﷺ) caused food to increase	190
The report of Jaabir ibn 'Abdullah	191
He caused water to increase, it flowed from between his fingers	192
His enemies were prevented from harming him	194
Answers to his prayers	196
The mother of Abu Hurayrah was guided by the prayer of the Messenger (ﷺ)	196
Jareer became a horseman because of his prayer	196
The hand of an arrogant person was affected by his prayer	198
The blessing of the Messenger's prayer reached the camel of Jaabir	198
Healing the sick	199
He healed a person whose leg was broken	199
He healed the eye of 'Ali ibn Abi T̄aalib (ﷺ)	199
The shin of Salamah ibn al-Akwa'	200
He expelled the jinn from one who was possessed	200
He told of unseen matters	201
The sorrow of the tree stump	204
The trees submitted to him, greeted him with salaam and spoke to him	204
The greeting of the rock	206

The complaint of the camel	206
Miracles of people other than the Prophets	209
The karaamaat of the awliyaa'	209
The wisdom behind karaamaat being given to the awliyaa'	210
Lights in sticks	211
Blessed food	211
Sufaynah and the lion	212
A shout in Madeenah echoes in Syria	213
Some karaamaat of the awliyaa'	213
Righteousness is the greatest karaamah	214
Miracles and devilish exploits	215
2 - The Previous Nations were Told about the Coming of the Prophet (ﷺ)	216
The Qur'an tells us that the earlier Prophets foretold the coming of our Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ)	217
The supplication of Prophet Ibraaheem (Abraham) (ﷺ)	218
Prophet Moosa (Moses) foretold the coming of the Prophet (ﷺ)	220
Other traces of this foretelling in the Bible	222
'Eesa (Jesus) foretold the coming of the Prophet (ﷺ)	223
Two likenesses of the Tawraat and Injeel	224
Foretelling in the Old Testament	225
The Messenger (ﷺ) is mentioned by name in the Bible	225
Places and events connected with the Messenger (ﷺ) are mentioned	226
The Bible refers to one of the features of the place to which the Messenger (ﷺ) migrated	228

The Bible refers to things that happened at the hands of the Prophet (ﷺ)	228
The rays and light which shone from his hand	229
Plague went before him; pestilence followed his steps	230
Yathrib was infected with fever, and hardly anyone could enter it without being afflicted	232
General prophecies	232
Prophecies from the Gospel	235
Other prophecies from the Gospels	236
From the Gospel of Luke	240
Prophecies in the Gospel of Barnabas	242
A view of the Gospel of Barnabas	242
Prophecies in other world scriptures	245
These prophecies were widely known before the Prophet (ﷺ) came	247
Description of our Messenger (ﷺ) in the Torah	247
Where is this prophecies in the Torah?	248
The story of Ibn al-Haybaan	250
When what they knew came to them, they disbelieved in it	251
‘Abdullah ibn Salaam benefited from his knowledge	251
The testimony of a Jewish boy	253
The insight of a monk	253
The Jewish scholars knew when the Prophet (ﷺ) would emerge	254
3 - A Glimpse at the Prophets	255
Heraclius and Abu Sufyaan	258
Their abstinence from the luxuries of this world	260
4 - The Call of the Messengers	261
The call of our Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ)	263
5 - The Help and Support Given by Allah to His Messengers	264

A specious argument 266

CHAPTER EIGHT

THE VIRTUE OF THE PROPHETS
AND THEIR VARYING STATUS 267

The Superiority of the Prophets over Others 267

There is no room for coincidence 270

The belief that the Imams are superior to the Prophets 271

The Seal of the Awliyaa' and the Seal of the Prophets 275

Precedence of some Prophets and Messengers over others 276

The Messengers of strong will are the highest in status of the Messengers 277

How are the Prophets and Messengers distinguished from one another? 278

The virtue of the Final Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) 282

The texts which forbid making a distinction between the Prophets 286

PART TWO

THE DIVINELY-REVEALED MESSAGES

CHAPTER ONE

BELIEF IN THE MESSAGES 291

The Obligation of Believing in the Messages 291

Belief in all the Messages 292

How should we believe in the Messages? 294

It is not sufficient only to believe in the Qur'an 296

CHAPTER TWO

COMPARISON BETWEEN THE MESSAGES 299

1 - Their Source and the Purpose Behind their Revelation	299
2 - The General Message and the Specific Message	306
3 - Preservation of the Messages	308
4 - Similarities and differences between the Divinely- Revealed Messages	310
The one Religion	310
How to determine Islam	312
The essence of the Messengers' call	313
The previous Messages describe the reasons which oblige us to worship Allah	316
Eternal Principles	318
Matters of belief	318
General principles	320
Differences between the laws	326
The Prophets are half-brothers	330
5 - How Long or Short their Books were, and When They were Revealed	330
The attitude of the final Message towards the previous Messages	331
The final law is in no need of any other law	334
SYMBOLS' DIRECTORY	336
GLOSSARY	337
REFERENCES	345
INDEX OF THE QUR'AN	349
INDEX OF HADITH	353
TRANSLITERATION CHART	357
GENEOLOGICAL CHART OF THE PROPHETS	359