

CONTENTS

---

Pronunciation and transliteration chart.....	11
Arabic honorific symbols .....	15
Hadith grade terms.....	16
About the word ‘ Lord ’ .....	17
When jihad refers to fighting.....	18
The Islamic viewpoint on slavery.....	21
Publisher’s note .....	23
Preface.....	25
Acknowledgments .....	33
Introduction .....	35
 PART ONE
Chapter One: Islam.....	49
What is Islam? .....	57
Pillar I: The shahâdatayn .....	59
Tawhîed .....	61
Being a Muslim .....	67
The Sunnah .....	74
Authenticity of Hadith.....	79
Pillar II: Ṣalâh .....	84
Pillar III: Zakâh .....	86
Pillar IV: Fasting.....	87
Pillar V: Hajj .....	88
Summary and conclusion.....	89

Chapter Two: Business Administration .....	93
What is business administration? .....	93
Following chapters .....	101

PART TWO

Chapter Three: Managerial Assets.....	107
Taqwâ .....	110
Tawakkul and patience .....	115
Istikhârah and shoorâ .....	120
Da‘wah .....	122
Conclusion .....	124
Chapter Four: Setting up a Business .....	129
Halal and haram businesses .....	133
1. Businesses that earn their revenue by selling haram products or services .....	133
2. Businesses that contaminate their revenues by selling a few haram products .....	134
3. Businesses that sell items that may be used either for halal or haram purposes .....	135
4. Businesses that sell only halal products but engage in haram practices .....	138
5. Businesses that sell halal items and engage in halal practices but implicitly support haram causes.....	139
Other legal issues.....	140
Chapter Five: Finance and Accounting .....	147
Finance .....	148
Islamic finance .....	151
What is ribâ ? .....	153
• Murâbahah : adding a profit margin .....	162
• Bay‘ al-âjil : credit sales .....	163

• Ijârah : leasing.....	163
• Mushâarakah/mudârabah : partnership.....	163
Criticism of Islamic finance.....	164
Accounting.....	166
Chapter Six: Human Resource Management.....	167
Halal and haram careers.....	170
Compensation.....	172
Performance assessment.....	174
Nepotism and discrimination.....	175
Gender issues: Intermingling.....	180
Dress codes.....	188
Work design.....	190
Facilitating worship and avoiding evil.....	191
Chapter Seven: Organizational Behaviour.....	193
Example in our Prophet (ﷺ).....	197
Enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong	199
Mutual respect.....	200
Dignity and honesty.....	201
Resisting haram cultural imports.....	201
Leadership.....	202
Motivation.....	204
Collaborative effort.....	207
Avoiding backbiting, gossiping, and spying.....	209
Chapter Eight: Operations Management.....	211
Work design.....	212
Gender issues.....	213
Work hours.....	213
Worship issues.....	214
Safety.....	214

Contracts .....	215
Bartering certain commodities.....	215
Consignment or ‘buy-back’ clauses .....	216
Futures and options .....	216
Risk mitigation .....	220
Insurance.....	220
Risk reduction is not haram .....	221
Rigour or tawakkul ? .....	221
Chapter Nine: Marketing.....	225
Prohibition of music, certain drawings, and photography	229
Product design .....	232
Communication, advertising, and promotions .....	233
Why Islamic advertising is better.....	235
Electronic commerce.....	236
• Gharar .....	236
• The sale of such goods as gold or money.....	236
Chapter Ten: Management .....	237
Planning .....	238
Implementation.....	240
 PART THREE
Chapter Eleven: Business Ethics .....	245
The relationship between ethics and Islam.....	247
The superiority of Islam over secular business ethics ....	250
Normative guidelines in ethical management .....	255
• Gain knowledge of Islam .....	256
• Promote ethics through Islam.....	257
• Design CSR projects that reflect Islamic ethics.....	257
• Strive to increase taqwâ .....	257
Sustainability and waste management .....	258

Compensation for work injuries .....	259
Conclusion.....	261
Bibliography.....	265
Glossary of Islamic terms.....	267
Index .....	275